ENHANCING ACADEMIC COLLABORATION
BETWEEN SOUTH-EAST ASIA AND EUROPE

Funded by

 Federal Ministry
Women, Science
and Research
Republic of Austria

MISSION

The ASEAN-European Academic University Network (ASEA-UNINET) was formed in 1994 by Austrian and South-East Asian universities from Indonesia, Thailand, and Vietnam.

Based on the ideas and efforts of its founder and former Honorary President, Univ.-Prof. Dr. DDDDr.h.c. Bernd Michael Rode (* 1946; † 2022), it unites nowadays over 90 universities in an academic network.

The mission of ASEA-UNINET is to

- encourage and facilitate relationships between universities, governmental and non-governmental organisations and economic operators engaged in projects related to education, science, technology, innovation, and art in the countries of the member universities
- contribute research relevant to the world's problems, specifically to the target areas set out in the sustainable development goals and implementing the SDG's slogan of "no one should be left behind"
- enable and support cooperation between academic institutions in staff and student exchange, teaching, and research activities
- promote scientific, cultural, and human relationships and personal contacts and to increase intercultural exchange and understanding

VISION

ASEA-UNINET acts as a role model for cooperation and quality research between Europe and the ASEAN region. Recognising the process of increasing globalisation and of continuous internationalisation of education and research, ASEA-UNINET builds its success on equal footing in collaboration and fostering scientific and intercultural exchange.

UNITED EFFORTS

The partners of ASEA-UNINET decided to unite their efforts in

- assisting the formation of coalitions of resources for academic activities between member institutions
- recruiting funding and financing for those programmes and activities by all member institutions from university and national government sources as well as international funding agencies and from the private sector according to available project lines
- maintaining a fair balance in contributions to projects and programmes among the partners according to their economic and financial situation
- acting as a forum of continuous discussions on the progress of these projects, and serving as a network of excellence providing expertise and initiatives for entities seeking European – South-East Asian relations
- initiating projects and programmes of mutual interest and benefit for faculties, staff, and students
